Fr. William says, "St. Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153) was perhaps the most significant personality of the 12th century. Coming from the minor nobility of France, he rose to become the founder of dozens of monasteries, the arbiter of deciding which claimant was the real Pope, as well as the Preacher of the Second Crusade (1147-1150), and a spiritual master. He is best known today for his spiritual works and his sermons on the Songs of Songs."

Come join us for this special evening with Fr. William. You're welcome to share this invitation with your groups and friends.

Grace and Peace,

As one of the three principal architects of the Centering Prayer movement which included Fr. Thomas Keating and Fr. Basil Pennington, he is a global retreat master, author of over 15 books, and a much sought-after wisdom teacher, bringing a keen intellect, quick wit, and sense of humor to all of his teachings.

At almost 88 years of age, Fr. William is limited physically which prohibits travel except by Zoom. He relocated to the mother house, St. Joseph's Abbey, Spencer, Massachusetts (spencerabbey.org) two years ago from St. Benedict's Monastery, Snowmass, Colorado (snowmass.org) where he had lived, worked, and prayed for over 40 years. Fr. William now resides in the same room as Fr. Thomas Keating did in the health wing of the Abbey.
